

Coronavirus Research Restart

The IRB is not accepting proposals from researchers who want to restart pre COVID-19 studies paused in person studies and new in person studies. All protocols that propose in person studies must detail how this is to be accomplished and follow the guidelines of the University and the CDC.

The following must be addressed: 1. Visitors to campus must comply with the