

partner involved in a dating or intimate relationship.

Domestic violence may be hard to recognize if the abuse does not happen consistently. However,

CAMPUS SUPPORT SERVICES

The Student Counseling Center offers confidential individual and group counseling and crisis intervention for survivors of domestic violence, dating violence and/or stalking incidents. Counseling services are available on-site at the Garden City campus and Manhattan Center. Day and evening hours are available by calling 516.877.3646. Counseling services are also available for Hudson Valley Center students through The Workplace EAP by calling 845.431.8740.

Crisis intervention and counseling services are also provided at the Garden City campus by The Safe Center LI.

The Safe Center LI offers services free of charge to survivors of domestic or dating violence. Survivors can call the center's free 24-hour hotline at 516.542.0404.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES

In addition to the Student Counseling Center, Adelphi partners with the perinatal hospital provide support services to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking victims. Community support services near Adelphi include:

C :

The Safe Center LI 24-hour hotline: 516.542.0404

Long Island Crisis Center Online/Mobile Chat Counseling:

1-800-452-7470

C :

Victim Information Bureau of Suffolk:

631.360.3606 (24-hour crisis line)

Long Island Crisis Center Online/Mobile Chat Counseling:

1-800-452-7470

C :

Safe Horizon hotline:

Domestic violence hotline: 800.621.4673

Crime victim hotline: 866.689.4357

Rape, sexual assault and incest hotline: 212.227.3000

TTY phone number for all hotline:

DEBIF

For equal access, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking

All students have the right to:

1. Make a report to local law enforcement and/or the state police;
2. Have disclosure of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking and sexual assault read verbatim;
3. Make a decision about whether or not to disclose a crime or violation and participate in the judicial or conduct process and/or criminal justice process free from pressure from the University;
4. Participate in a process that is fair, impartial and provide adequate notice and meaningful opportunity to be heard;
5. Be read with dignity and receive from the University courteous, fair and respectful healthcare and counseling services where available;
6. Be free from retaliation, have the reporting individual notified when the crime and violation are committed, or hold have acted in a different manner, or avoid each crime or violation;
7. Describe the incident to a University representative in a practicable and not be required to disclose any repeatable description of the incident;
8. Be protected from retaliation by the University, and student, the accused and/or the respondent, and/or their friend, family and acquaintance within the jurisdiction of the University;
9. Have access to a legal counsel of appeal of a determination;
10. Be accompanied by an advisor of choice, make a statement and advise a reporting individual, accused or respondent through the judicial or conduct process, including during all meeting and hearing related to each process;
11. Exercise civil rights and the practice of religion in his or her inference by the individual, criminal justice or judicial or conduct process of the University.

»

»